The Governor's Office of Economic Development (GOED) provides financial incentives for business relocation and expansion to select companies that create new, high-paying jobs to help improve the standard of living, increase the tax base, attract and retain top-level management, and diversify the state economy.

Incentives are offered as either tax credits or grants. The incentive amount and duration is decided by the GOED Board and Executive Director based on statutory guidelines and evaluation criteria including the financial strength of the company, the number and salary of jobs created, amount of new state tax revenue, long-term capital investment, competition with other locations, and whether the company is in a targeted cluster, including:

- Software and Information Technology
- Aviation and Aerospace
- Financial Services
- Defense and Homeland Security
- Corporate Headquarters
- Life Sciences
- Energy and Natural Resources
- Outdoor Products and Recreation
